RENTAL LOAN PROCESS OVERVIEW

Process: We use our personal real estate and lending experience to maintain an ever-changing network of lenders offering the best deals to real estate investors. As needed, we can use our expertise to help you strategize and plan your investing, and to structure deals.

Once you submit the application above, we'll match you to the best lender for you and your deal. We'll notify you of the proposed loan terms based on the information you've submitted. We'll gather the remaining documents required and complete a full loan package to submit to the lender. After all information is verified and the property valuation is complete, loan terms will be finalized, and closing can be scheduled.

Documentation: Use the checklist below and send in anything we don't have from you. The sooner we have everything the faster we can get your loan closed. The list below is the minimum required. Depending on the lender and loan type, you may need additional items.

Fees: For a Rental Loan, most often you can expect 1-2 points, which includes the $499 Commitment Fee. The lender may have other fees not included in the points, and may pass through third party fees. Our maximum broker fees will be clearly listed in the Broker Agreement.

Commitment Fee: The $499 Commitment Fee is required AFTER we confirm we can fund your loan based on the information you have provided. The loan process officially begins once the Commitment Fee is received.

*We may ask you to pull your credit report instead of pulling it ourselves. By having you obtain the report, this helps you preserve your credit score by reducing the number of inquiries to your credit report. The final lender we match you with always pulls their own credit report, and we see no point in doing two inquiries.
